

City Academy – University Applications FAQs

How do I apply?

- Online at www.ouac.on.ca/ouac-101.
- OUAC PINs arrive in late October.
- City Academy will guide students through the application process.

When do I apply?

- Through the school in November-December. A schedule will be posted.
- OUAC applications are due January 11, 2012.

How much does the application cost?

- First 3 choices $125 in total; each additional choice $42.
- Credit card payment is made directly to OUAC. City Academy will help students process the payment.

How do universities access grades?

- All grade 11 and 12 marks will be posted on OUAC. Current grades are posted every semester.
- All timetabled courses are posted on OUAC to inform universities what credits the student plans to complete by June. Universities do not expect all courses to be completed by the application deadline (January 11).
- Outside credits - students are responsible for submitting official report cards to the school. Otherwise, these midterm or final marks cannot be sent to OUAC or added to the transcript.

Can I view my completed application online?

- Yes. You will need your OUAC reference number and PIN to log in.

Can I change my application once it has been submitted?

- Yes. Your account will be locked for 24 hours after each change.

Where can I find information about admission requirements?

- EInfo (www.electronicinfo.ca) publishes minimum cut-off averages and prerequisite courses.
- Additional requirements are posted on university websites (i.e. portfolios, auditions etc.). These are not listed on eINFO. Meeting these requirements and deadlines is the individual student's responsibility.

How is my admission average calculated?

- Universities look at "top six" 4U or 4M courses, including prerequisites.
- Note: Queen's requires three 4U courses; McGill and Schulich Business (YorkU) require four.
- Repeated Courses: Most universities take the higher grade. However, some penalize repeats.

How do I apply to other Canadian universities?

- Applications are found on the university's website. Deadlines and fees vary.
- Some universities can access your grades through OUAC; others require you to mail in transcripts.
- School assistance is available.

How do I apply to Colleges?

- Online at www.ontariocolleges.ca (deadline February 1st, 2012). Assistance is available at the school.

What if I have already attended a university or college?

- Please pick up important information about OUAC 105 applications at the front desk. Assistance is available on request.

Can I apply for academic accommodations at university?

- Yes. Information will be emailed to applicants in November. Current documentation will be required.
